

Ally Bergmann, MS, CPP

Executive Director
North River Prevention Partners, Inc.

Ally Bergmann has been a resident of Manatee County since 1981 and a resident of Parrish since 2001. After a short career as a substance abuse counselor, she started work at Drug Free Manatee as the Prevention Coordinator. In 2019, Ally left Drug Free Manatee as the Associate Director to take her current position as the Executive Director of North River Prevention Partners in Palmetto. Ally holds a Master of Science degree from the University of Florida and is a Certified Prevention Professional. A recent empty-nester, Ally enjoys traveling, cheering for the Palmetto Tigers and the Gators, and spending time with her husband of 27 years, Mike, their daughters Riley and Holly (when they are home from college), and their cats Sarah and Greg.
