

Mark Stanoch

Mark Stanoch and his wife Annette have been residents of Manatee County since 2008 and are the proud parents of 3 sons and 3 grandchildren. Two of their grandchildren currently attend public schools here in Manatee County.

Mr. Stanoch has spent nearly his entire career in Technology. He has had managerial and executive positions in several large technology companies including IBM Global Services where he served as Principal, and Dell Inc. where he was a Microsoft Relationship Executive. He was also the founder of 2 technology startups which he successfully managed to acquisition by publicly traded corporations.

A passionate lifetime learner, Mr. Stanoch has an extensive background in business and technology and has achieved technical certifications from SAP, Microsoft, IBM and others. He is the founder of the Victims of Communism – Mantee scholarship program and is active in charitable organizations including FELT, Inc. He is currently a mentor for the “Dive Into Reading” program.

In his spare time, he manages the websites and backend systems for several civic organizations.