

Richard P. Green, Esq.

Richard P. Green, Esq. moved to Florida in 2015 with his wife Caitlin and son Mason. Since that time, they have added to their family a son Oliver and daughter, Mila. While living in Manatee County, Richard participated in and graduated from Leadership Manatee, a program providing a deep dive into the County and its needs. He and his family are members of Bayside Community Church where they serve in many capacities, and he is a proud Board Member with Sarasota Medical Pregnancy Center.

In addition to serving the community, Richard has been dedicated to building his career as a Senior Attorney with Lewis, Longman & Walker, P.A. He has extensive experience in the areas of real estate, agriculture, land use development, and environmental matters. Richard, a Blackstone Fellow, is also an attorney partner with Alliance Defending Freedom. His recognition as one of Tampa Magazine's Top Lawyers, inclusion in the Best Lawyers in America "Ones to Watch List," and consistent acknowledgment as a Rising Star by Florida Super Lawyers demonstrate his expertise and dedication to excellence in the legal profession.
