

Kevin W. Wright

Retired Lieutenant Colonel
United States Army

Kevin is a retired U.S. Army Lieutenant Colonel with 24 years' service. He served in two combat deployments to Iraq in 1991 and 2006, assignments in Germany, Israel and throughout the U.S. He was commissioned in Armor from the United States Military Academy, West Point, New York in 1983 and awarded a Master's Degree in Political Science, University of Louisville.

He has extensive instructional experience as adjunct professor of political science at Columbus State, Georgia State, Georgia Military College, Keiser and Ashford Universities, as well as a full time ROTC instructor at the University of Tennessee at Martin with years of service as a high school JROTC Senior Army Instructor.

Kevin is a certified educational consultant/presenter and former financial services distributor. He is active in the American Legion Post in Bradenton and involved in political activism starting in 2008 and currently in TEA party groups across the states and many Republican Clubs.

He is one of two state national directors for the Florida Republican Assembly and President of the Manatee Sarasota County Republican Assembly.