

KEVIN MCNULTY
Co-Founder and President
NetWeave Social Networking

Kevin McNulty is co-founder and president of NetWeave Social Networking. NetWeave was named Small Business of the Year by the Manatee Chamber of Commerce and Associate Member of the Year by the Florida Attractions Association. They provide social media services for a wide range of over 70 clients in the US.

Kevin is followed by over 25,000 people on Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn. He delivers a series of social media courses for the Manatee Chamber of Commerce, and has been a guest lecturer for USF, New College, St. Leo University, the Florida Attractions Association, and the Florida Aviation Business Association. His nine years in social media give him a foundation in relevant experience regarding the business uses of social media.

Kevin received his degree in Psychology from California State University, Fullerton, served in the US Army, and worked for over 20 years in corporate training and communications before co-founding NetWeave in 2009.
